

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE Marchese San Germano, who has been at the Jefferson Hotel for several days and who leaves with her little daughter for Wilmington to-day, was the guest at luncheon yesterday of Mrs. John C. Freeman, at No. 107 North Sixth Street. Invited to meet the marchese were a number of ladies, relatives and schoolmates of her mother, now Mrs. J. Peyton Hodge, of Louisville, Ky., formerly Miss Holladay, of Richmond.

The table was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The marchese wore black tulle, made with a transparent yoke and trimmed with colored embroidery. She has a beautiful voice, trained by the finest European masters, and her Richmond friends have enjoyed nothing more than hearing her sing at the informal gatherings arranged for her pleasure.

Compelled to fulfill social engagements at Wilmington, the marchese, for lack of time, has had to decline a number of invitations for dinner, tea and luncheon. She dined quietly with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling and her uncle, Mr. Randolph Holladay, on Sunday evening, Miss Page Royall, Mrs. Bolling's niece, being the only guest present. Gowned in green velvet, with a diamond tiara among her laces, the marchese was a striking example of beautiful American womanhood, whose natural graces have been enhanced by residence abroad and by contact with life in the court circles of Europe. A coat of Russian sables has been especially becoming as an out-of-door wrap during her Richmond visit.

A second family dinner, enabling the marchese to meet her grandfather, was arranged by Mrs. Bolling for last evening. The marchese will go directly from Wilmington to Newark, N. J., and afterwards to New York City, where she will be entertained by friends of her student days at Wellesley College, her American alma mater. She will sail on Saturday, returning to the Palazzo San Germano in Rome. Of her other homes, one overlooks the Bay of Naples outside of the city, and another is in the hill country of Northern Italy.

Miss Glasgow at Woman's Club.
The announcement that Miss Ellen Glasgow was to read a paper at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon on "The Moral Responsibility of Man to Animals" attracted a large audience. The auditorium, drawing-rooms and hall were thronged with an eager and interested crowd of listeners. Miss John S. Munce was particularly happy in her introduction of Miss Glasgow. She said: "I feel like the old negro who, in comparing the one year of his son's age with the twenty-five of his own, inferred that he was twenty-five times as old as the boy. Then, continuing his train of reasoning, he found to his surprise that in five years he would only be five times the age of the boy, and that at fifty he could only hope to double the youngster's age. 'Well, well,' exclaimed the old negro, 'huc-um so I wonder? First there I know dis here boy be older den his daddy.' When Ellen Glasgow was five or six years old, Mrs. Munce went on, 'I held her in my arms and read to her, but before she was eighteen years she was as old as I am, and then I held her at her feet and learned from her the true philosophy of life.'"

Miss Glasgow read her paper with a clear, distinct enunciation that rendered it thoroughly heard and enjoyed by all present. She began by relating a story of a dog that persisted beside its sleeping master in an attempt to rouse him to the approach of a railroad engine and to drag him from his peril on the track. She contrasted the humanity of the East with the cruelty of the West, quoted from the Mahabharata as being the highest expression of the love of man toward all created things; touched upon the cruelty of the Dark Ages, and turned to the awakening of better things in England at the end of the eighteenth century, and mainly through the lips of John Bunyan.

She said that the fight against the cruelty of vivisection was yet to be fought in the United States, and quoted freely from Dr. Henry Bigelow, in support of statements made by her. She demonstrated in a convincing manner as men discharged their moral responsibilities to animals, so would they discharge them to their fellowmen, and that kindness and gentleness to dumb creatures, as well as to human beings, simply meant real and Christian civilization.

Many of the literary contingent of Richmond were present to listen to Miss Glasgow, among them Miss Mary Johnston, Miss Annie Stegar Whitson, Mrs. James H. Dooley, Miss Cally Ryland and Dr. S. C. Mitchell.

Other special guests included Mrs. Cary Glasgow McCormick, Mrs. Caryington Cabell Tutwiler, of Philadelphia; Miss Carrie Coleman, Mrs. Walter Watson, Misses Mary and Lena Warwick, Mrs. Anne Rutherford, of Rock Castle; Mrs. Linard, of Washington; Miss Looney, of Memphis, Tenn.; and Miss Johns, daughter of the Rev. Mr. Johns, of Washington.

Hostesses of the afternoon at the Six days of good temper in every box of Cascarets. Six days when you feel at your best; no headache, no dullness. Are they worth ten cents?

It is folly to talk of the "laxative habit." The habit lies in eating the wrong sort of food, and too much of it. And in getting too little exercise. While you do that, you must give the necessary help to the bowels in some other way. Else there is always a penalty.

Here is the way to avoid it: Eat coarse food in moderation. Eat plenty of fruit, many green vegetables. Drink no alcohol. Walk ten miles per day. Those are Nature's ways for keeping the bowels active. The next best way is Cascarets.

Cascarets, better than anything else, supply the place of laxative foods and of exercise. They do what right living would do. And they do it just as gently, just as naturally. They are vegetable. You'll need them just as long as you live in-doors, and eat rich foods; and no longer. Take them as you take food—when you need it. Carry a box in your pocket, and take one Cascaret at a time. That's better than to suffer and wait.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and 10c.

Ten Cents per Box

Hay's Hair Health

RESTORES GRAY or FADED HAIR to its NATURAL COLOR and BEAUTY

No matter how long it has been gray or faded. Promotes a luxuriant growth of healthy hair. Stops its falling out, and positively removes dandruff. Keeps hair soft and glossy. Refuse all substitutes. 2½ times as much in $1.00 as 50c size.

IS NOT A DYE.

Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

OWENS & MINOR DRUG COMPANY

coffee table were Mrs. S. W. Travers, Mrs. Leland Rankin and Mrs. J. C. Toberson, assisted by Mrs. Julian Hill, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, Miss Martha Robinson and Miss Mamie Davenport. At the tea table, Miss Mary Johnston, Mrs. Mattie Paul Myers and Mrs. Moses D. Hodge had with them as helpers, Miss Ellen Blair, Miss Jessie Hazard, Mrs. W. J. Leake, Mrs. James H. Dooley and Mrs. John T. Anderson.

Appeal for Day Nursery.

On account of the inclement weather of Friday, the results of donation day at the Belle Bryan Day Nursery were somewhat disappointing. In consequence contributions of all kinds are asked for and will be received throughout this week.

Called Meeting.

All officers and chairmen of committees are earnestly requested to attend a called meeting to be held at 11 o'clock this morning in the Woman's Christian Association, Nos. 709-711 East Franklin Street, as Miss Anna D. Casler, secretary of the provisional territorial committee, has something of importance to communicate. The patronesses for the Rollickers' minstrel show to be given in Belvidere Hall at 8:30 P. M. on Friday for the benefit of the Woman's Christian Association are:

Mrs. C. A. Swanson, Miss E. Martin, Mrs. A. B. Blair, Miss Annie Guy, Mrs. F. Haughton, Mrs. J. H. Moore, Mrs. P. Conquest, Mrs. J. C. Stewart, Mrs. B. Crump, Mrs. A. F. Rahm, Mrs. G. A. Lyon, Mrs. W. M. Wade, Mrs. C. O. Saville, Mrs. C. P. Walford, Miss M. Norwood, Mrs. Cary Nelson and others.

Miss Grant at Punta Delgada.

Miss Avis Grant, who sailed on March 14th on the White Star steamship Romaine with Mrs. John H. Eager, of Baltimore, has arrived at Punta Delgada, in the Azores Islands. The party will visit Madeira, Gibraltar and Algiers en route to Naples, and will remain abroad for five months. The other members of the party are Miss Pearl Beck, of Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Lella Barker, and Miss Jessie Apperson, of Lynchburg; Misses Frank Hanes, Margaret Hanes and Emma Bailey, of Winston-Salem, N. C.; and Misses Eva Drewry and Louis Gay, of Cuthbert, Ga.

To Meet To-day.

The Masonic Home Auxiliary will meet this morning at 11 o'clock in Masonic Temple. A full attendance is desired.

Returned to New York.

Miss Dorothy Christian, Miss Zaidie Branch and Miss Ella Buek, who have been spending their spring vacation most pleasantly in Richmond, have returned to Miss Spence's school in New York.

Although the Lenten season forbids any formal or elaborate entertaining for the young ladies, a number of luncheons, theatre parties and other outings were arranged in their honor by Richmond friends, who always welcome their arrival with pleasure and bid them good-by with regret.

Mid-Lenten Luncheon.

A mid-Lenten luncheon will be given for the benefit of the Arlington monument fund on Wednesday, April 1st, in Lee Camp Hall.

Mrs. Thomas S. Bocoek is State director of the Arlington Monument Association. Mrs. David Thomas Williams will be chairman of the entertainment and will be assisted by a committee of ladies from Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Full details regarding the luncheon will be published later.

Mrs. Ellerson Hostess.

Mrs. Ida W. Ellerson will be the hostess of this afternoon at the Woman's Club when the Virginia Society of Colonial Dames holds its March meeting.

The society has entered upon a new era in its history, and all its meetings hereafter will be held at the club, with different members to provide the social entertainment following the business meetings.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. William Rhett, of Columbus,

Miss, and Mrs. William Munford, wife of the Rev. William Munford, of Annapolis, Md., are visiting their sisters, the Misses Munford, of No. 307 West Franklin Street.

Miss Carrie Neal, who has been the guest of her uncle, Mrs. P. W. Forrell, of Danville, and the recipient of many pleasant attentions in a social way, returned to Richmond yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckalew, of Buffalo, N. Y., are in Richmond, and are at No. 215 East Franklin Street.

Dr. Burke, of Alabama, is visiting his brother, Dr. M. O. Burke, at the Mount Vernon. He is considering the advisability of locating in the West End.

Mrs. Charles Rowe and Miss Nancy Waddill are guests of Mrs. James I. Pritchett, Jr., in Danville.

Mrs. Linard, of Washington, who is spending some time here, with Mrs. T. Hunter, was a guest at Woman's Club last afternoon.

Mrs. John Neal, of Danville, is expected in Richmond soon to visit Mrs. Thomas D. Neal Jr.

Mr. F. Ordway Grady and his sister, Miss Sallie Lee Grady, who have been touring the South and visiting Havana, are both much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adamson, who have been spending the winter in Richmond, have returned to Bon Air and their country home.

FINE WORK OF CHORAL SOCIETY

New Musical Organization Makes Initial Appearance Under Most Favorable Auspices.

From the opening swing of the director's baton to the closing note of the great "Hallelujah Chorus," a thoroughly delighted audience heard last evening the rendering of a high class program by local musicians.

Notwithstanding the rain, a large audience greeted the new Choral Society, and were amply repaid for braving the weather. The painstaking preparation of the chorus was evidenced by the perfect harmony and time of every number.

The soloists were in good voice and added to their already widespread reputation as finished artists. The exuberant "Lucia" was very effective. The work of the orchestra was of a high order and gave evidence of careful and accurate training. The excerpts from the "Messiah" were especially fine.

The program rounded to a triumphant close in the "Hallelujah Chorus," and the audience honored the splendid composition by standing.

Thirty-four voices composed the chorus, and the orchestra contained thirty pieces.

The performance reflected the highest credit upon Mr. Shepard, the director, who with Mr. E. A. Hoen, merits great praise for perfecting so capable an organization.

The initial concert was given for the benefit of the organ fund of the Church of the Covenant, and a considerable sum was realized.

The full program was as follows:

Part I.

Overture "Light Cavalry".....Suppe

"Hall Bright Abode".....Tannhauser

Chorus and orchestra.....Wagner

Flute solo "Alpine Song".....Popp

Orchestra accompaniment.....Donizetti

Sextet from "Lucia".....Donizetti

Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Whitte, Messrs. Mc-

Bain, Potter, Brent, Gordon.

"Ronda d'Amour" (a).....Weston

"Coronation March" (b).....Meyerbeer

Orchestra.....

Part II.

Excerpts from "The Messiah".....Handel

Overture, orchestra.....

Chorus....."And the Glory of the Lord"

Contralto solo....."O Whom Thou Teliest"

Mrs. S. S. Whitte.....

Contralto solo.....

....."He shall Feed His Flock"

Miss Grace Greenwood.....

Soprano solo....."Come Unto Him"

Mrs. Walter Duke.....

Chorus....."Lift Up Your Heads"

Pastoral Symphony.....orchestra

Chorus....."Hallelujah Chorus"

.....

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Fine Program Arranged for Big Meeting in Ashland.

Beginning Thursday, the school teachers of Hanover and adjacent counties will hold an institute in the high school building at Ashland. School Examiner E. H. Russell has arranged an interesting program and hopes for a very successful meeting.

Many of the teachers are well known in educational circles, and the outlook is bright for a large attendance of teachers and others interested in this work. Following is a complete program for the two days:

March 26th.

10 A. M. Opening exercises and addresses, Superintendent H. Carter Radd and Dr. W. E. Dodd, of Randolph-Macon.

10:45 A. M. "The Needs for and Advantages of Central Schools," Miss Mary McGeorge, of Hanover; "Story Telling in the Grades," Miss Alice Reed, of Ashland.

11:30 A. M. "Teaching of History," Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, editor Virginia Journal of Education.

12:15. "Teaching of Geography," Dr. E. A. Millidge, of the State Normal School.

1 to 2:30. Recess.

2:30 P. M. "Teaching of Drawing," Mrs. D. W. Read, of Leesburg, Va.

3:15 P. M. Hanover Teachers' Association.

7:30 P. M. Addresses by Hon. Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, Va., and Hon. Rosewell Page, of Ashland.

March 27th.

10 A. M. "What a Teacher May Do to Improve the Attendance of a Country School," Miss Lizzie Terrell, of Hanover; "How to Secure Co-operation of Patrons," Dr. Robert Frazer, of Warrenton, Va.

10:50 A. M. "Care of Child's Health in Schools," Dr. W. H. Heck, of the University of Virginia.

11:30 A. M. "Teaching of Reading," Miss M. W. Halliburton, of the State Female Normal School.

12:15 P. M. "School Management," Dr. H. B. Bennett, of William and Mary College.

1 to 2:30 P. M. Recess.

2:30 P. M. "Writing and Drawing," Miss Clara Emms, of New York City.

3 P. M. Discussion of schoolhouse building, by Mr. C. M. Robinson, of Richmond, Va.

Will Hold Court.

Judge A. R. Hancock, of the Hustings Court of Norfolk, has been designated by Governor Swanson to sit in place of Judge James L. McLeary, who is coming term of the Circuit Court of Southampton. Judge McLeary requested that he be relieved, as there are cases on the docket in which he thought it improper for him to sit.

Reinach

107 EAST BROAD STREET.

Supplementary Opening To-Day of the Newest Millinery

Masterful Creations That Tell the Story of Our Millinery Success.

Since our Spring opening almost a week ago, our second floor millinery salons have been the reception rooms for all Richmond.

The fame of the Millinery, its beauty, its grace, its harmony of color and its versatility of trimming schemes have been spread broadcast. But, beautiful and smart as the initial exhibit was, it is not a marker to that which you are invited to view to-day and the balance of the week. Come! You are welcome.

REDUCE NUMBER WHO MUST ATTEND

War Department Makes Minimum Roster for Coast Defense Practice Fifty Men.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., March 23.—Adjutant General T. R. Robertson, of the North Carolina National Guard, is notified by the War Department that a modification in the regulations for the coast defense practices at Fort Caswell for this summer has been made so that the minimum number of companies allowed to participate will be fifty men instead of fifty-eight. This change removes an obstacle that was in the way of many companies participating, so that it is now practically settled that the Second Regiment and three outside companies to be designated later, will participate in these practice manoeuvres.

This afternoon, in the Hall of Representatives, a large number of prominent citizens assembled to hear read an admirable sketch, by Marshall Delaney, movement, of the peace conference, held in North Carolina in 1819, and a brief address by President Hayne Davis, of the North Carolina peace conference, on the general purposes of the undertaking, leading up to a State meeting that it is proposed to hold in Wilmington, Raleigh or Greensboro, sometime in May.

For Abducting a Girl.

A reward is offered by Governor Glenn for Avery Powell, wanted in Ashe county for abduction of an eleven-year-old girl of respectable parentage, going through a mock wedding ceremony with her, an hour afterward deserting her and fleeing the country. Powell is only sixteen or nineteen years old. He was arrested by officers in Watauga county shortly after his crime in Ashe, but a crowd of his friends and relatives secured his release from the officers and he escaped.

To Improve Camp Grounds.

Colonel J. L. Ludlow, of Winston-Salem, chief of the engineering corps, North Carolina National Guard, is in the city in conference with Adjutant General T. R. Robertson with reference to the improvement of the State encampment ground at Moorehead, especially the water and sewerage systems that are to be installed. Colonel Ludlow, who is one of the most prominent civil engineers in the whole South, will prepare the plans for the sewerage and water systems.

A charter was issued to-day for the Churnless Butter Company, of Winston-Salem, capital $50,000 authorized, and $1,000 subscribed by George E. P. Orter, E. B. Kern and J. F. Griffith, for the sale of county and town rights to use of the process of extracting butter from milk without churning it.

Mr. Charles D. Jones, second son of Mr. Garland Jones, of this city, died last night in a hospital at Baltimore after a protracted illness. He is a grandson of Dr. T. M. Jones, of Greensboro, and was thirty-five years old. The remains will be brought here for interment to-morrow.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner returned to-day from Wadesboro and Morvin, Anson county, where he delivered educational addresses Saturday in the interest of local tax and general improvement of schools.

MAY TRY TRAINMEN.

Case Against Them, Growing Out of Fatal Accident, Set for This Term.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 23.—Wake county Superior Court was convened to-day by Judge J. Crawford Biggs, of Durham for a two weeks' criminal term. A case of general interest that may come to trial at this term is that of State vs. Engineer Rippey, Conductor Oakley and the two train dispatchers involved in the terrible wreck at Auburn, this county, about a year ago, in which the eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight collided, the engineer and fireman of the freight being killed. The indictments against the engineer and conductor of the passenger train are for forgetting meeting orders, and those against the train dispatchers for failure to use the "middle order system," in accordance with the rules of the Southern, which, it is claimed, would have averted the collision. In spite of the fact that the meeting orders were forgotten by the passenger train crew. There is a strong likelihood that the case will be again postponed.

BIG TEMPERANCE MEETING.

Mr. Caps Makes Stirring Speech at China Grove and Club Is Formed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPEAKER, N. C., March 23.—Sunday was a red-letter day for China Grove, a thriving little town in Rowan county, nine miles south of Salisbury; the occasion being a big temperance rally, at which Bismarck Caps, of Salisbury, was the special speaker. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Clapp, Mayor of the town, who introduced the speaker in a short speech, in which he said that China Grove is already two-thirds teetotal, and the temperance cause in Rowan, and the surrounding country, was given a big send-off. A dozen or more Salisburyans went to China Grove for the rally.

A feature of the day was a stirring address by Miss Elizabeth Moore, State organizer of the W. C. T. U., who remained over to-day and organized a club at China Grove.

REV. MR. DOBYNS DECLINES.

Not Able to Accept Call Tendered Him by Charlotte.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 23.—The Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., of St. Joseph, Mo., who was called to the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian Church here, to-day telegraphed the pastoral committee declining the call. The pastorate was made vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. M. D. Hardin, who accepted a call to a Chicago church. The Second Church has a membership of over 2,000 souls, and is the largest church in the State. The congregation heard Dr. Dobyns preach ten days ago here, and are greatly disappointed that he will not accept the call.

BURSTING OF WATER MAIN LEAVES TOWN WITHOUT WATER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HIGH POINT, N. C., March 23.—A water main burst last night, and again for the second time within a week the city is without water supply, and many of the plants using electric power are shut down for want of water to run the business furnishing electric power. The city water works are with rather serious problem, in that there is only one line of pipe to the water station, and when this gets out of fix the water supply is necessarily shut off. The matter of having a duplicate line to the water station has been felt for some time to be a necessity.

"Quality"

Is the first thing you ought to look into when buying anything, and we especially urge you to see the good qualities of a Quality Gas Range. We absolutely guarantee our broil as good as any kind of stove you ever used and make an enormous saving of fuel. Besides, they're so constructed as to take up very little room, make a big glittering show, but do your cooking better, cleaner and at far less cost than any other kind of stove made. Just think! One of our customers, told us that she had a family of five that she could cook and bake biscuits in three minutes!

We sell Quality Gas Ranges from $10.50 up (no fancy prices).

Chas. G. JURGENS' Son

Cor. Adams and Broad Sts.

Right in the Centre of the Furniture District.

$1.98

While they last, we'll sell an extra large rattan arm rocker for $1.98. We'll give you all the credit you want if you want it!

LAWYER POLLOCK FORFEITS BOND

His Client, W. H. Johnson, Charged With Theft, Fails to Appear in Court.

Attorney Gilbert Pollock is out just $100, as W. H. Johnson, charged with stealing a handbag, worth $3, from the H. W. Rountree & Bro. Co., w. a Mr. Pollock bailed, failed to appear when his name was called in Police Court yesterday morning. Justice Crutchfield declared the bond forfeited. Mr. Pollock is confident that he will be indemnified, but the police believe that Johnson will return no more to the scene of his arrest.

Johnson walked into the Rountree store on Saturday afternoon, and in what has been called an absent-minded manner, walked out with a handbag. He was pursued by a clerk, and on a warrant was arrested by Policeman Kuhn. Mr. Pollock says that the young man is an epileptic, and that this will account for the theft and his non-appearance in court.

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

B. M. Robertson Will Not Stand for Re-Election to Board of Aldermen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Conditions connected with the election of a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Fourth Ward have assumed a most interesting aspect, and, judging from the present indications, the greatest contest in the city in the coming primary will be in that ward. Former Alderman J. W. Barrett announced his candidacy against Mr. B. M. Robertson as a member of the Board of Aldermen yesterday morning, and yesterday afternoon Mr. Robertson stated that he would retire from the race. He said his only reason for not entering the primary this spring was the effect that the passage of the Cooks bill by the General Assembly will have upon his business if he remains in the Board. Being in the lumber business, he sells quantities of material to contractors who take city work, and therefore he would be violating the new statute. Should he enter the fight and go back to the Board he would have to lose this trade, which constitutes a considerable portion of his business. Mr. Robertson made an excellent member, and his services have been appreciated by the people in the ward, who regret to hear of his retirement.

Mr. Broadus Urged to Run.

Mr. R. C. Broadus is now being urged to run for the Board. He was at one time a member of the City Council, but gave the position up on account of private interests. He was a most efficient member, and when he withdrew his constituents asked to promise to return to the Council at some other time, which he agreed to do. Now these persons are bringing pressure to bear upon him, and there seems to be little doubt that they will hold him to his promise. Mr. Broadus has not made any positive statement in connection with his candidacy, and when asked about the matter yesterday said he had not as yet determined whether or not he would run.

Should Messrs. Barrett and Broadus be opponents in the primary the contest would be close, and the